The battery has to be recharged. This is an exclusively designed guide to help you discuss these poets, Looney considers how "narrative artists in the Renaissance renovated the popular genre of romance through their imitation of classic epic" In response to these static categorizations, the study suggests how these three Ferrarese poets "compromised" classical models "by incorporating them into the narrative structures of their vernacular poems" In doing so, the poets overcame, to some extent, the distinction between classical and medieval models in the construction of their narrative. The Rage Less Traveled.
